

Advertisement -Walk-In-Interview for Field Investigator 28th August, 2018

Interview will be conducted for one post of Field Investigator for ICSSR funded Major Research Project titled "A Study of Unintended Benefits of PMJDY in Transformation of People's Life in India".

Title of the Post: Field Investigator (temporary)

No of Posts: 1

Remuneration: Rs.12,000/-per month (fixed)

Qualification:

M.A./M.com (Social Sciences) minimum 55%.

Duration of the Appointment: The appointment is initially for two months\ (September 2018 and October 2018). On assessing the candidate performance of two months the period may be extended to four months but not exceeding a period of six months in total. The position is part-time and would require travelling.

Desirable Qualifications:

- I. Candidate should be able to travel different states, districts and Villages of India for data collection.
- II. Familiarity in working with Statistical and Quantitative Methods
- III. Excellent writing skills.

Candidates fulfilling the above required qualifications may appear before the selection Committee with their original certificates, updated CV and self-attested photocopies of all relevant documents.

Interview Date: 12th September, 2018

Time: 1:00 pm onwards

Venue: Vice-Principal's Room, Kamala Nehru College, August Kranti Marg, New Delhi

(Note: No TA/DA will be paid to candidates appearing for the interview).

Dr. Smita Meena

Project Director

ICSSR Major Research Project, 2018

Email id: smitameena@yahoo.co.in