

University of Delhi – Task Force on Covid-19 Pandemic

To

The Deans / Heads / Directors / Principals,
Faculties / Departments / Centres / Colleges,
University of Delhi

Dear Colleagues,

This letter is in continuation of the Press Release issued by the University of Delhi dated March 12, 2020 urging teachers to remain available to their students through e-resources to maintain continuity in the teaching-learning process, in all the Undergraduate and Postgraduate programmes, with a request to make study material available on a weekly basis on the websites of all the Departments / Colleges. MHRD, as well as the University of Delhi, has issued several advisories to promote teaching-learning process through online resources.

Delhi University Computer Centre (DUCC) has outlined various online platforms and services on the University of Delhi website and integrated Google Services with our DU domain including two of the major applications viz. Google Classroom and Google Hangout to provide learning support to students. Delhi University Library System (DULS) has also provided links to various online resources on the DU website that can be accessed from home.

In view of these measures taken by the University of Delhi and in accordance with the MHRD, colleagues are encouraged to actively participate in the endeavour of online teaching-learning process in order to maintain continuity during the lock-down period due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Continuous help and support in promoting seamless teaching-learning process through various available online resources in your Faculty / Department / Centre / College is highly solicited. Please keep the task force informed about your participation and the outcome of your efforts in the process for the benefit of our students.

Stay home, Stay online, Stay safe and please do observe social distancing!

Thanking you.

Sincerely,

COVID-19 Task Force

University of Delhi
